EDITOR'S DESK

As you may already be aware, I will be relieved after this issue of the Aerograph. Our new editor will be XAG2 Gary Cox USN REL. Gary has been a big part of the website since Mahlon Trenz was relieved. In my opinion Gary has done an extraordinary job on the website and has been expanding and developing our sophistication with website manipulation.

In addition to "Webmaster Tasks" Gary stepped up to the plate and volunteered to assume the duties of Aerograph Editor as my relief.

Gary says that his cut-off date will be 15 October 2012 for the November issue of The Aerograph
E-Mail Gary at garycox@wyoming.com.

ATTENTION ALL NWSA MEMBERS...

As you know, we will pipe RADM Dave Titley over the side Friday morning in a ceremony at the U.S. Naval Observatory here in Washington D.C. It will be a great day for Dave and his lovely wife, Kathy, and it will mark the end of a remarkable 32+ year career of extraordinarily superb service to both our Navy and our Nation.

Dave leaves a truly splendid legacy of technical achievement, operational accomplishment, international diplomacy, and - most important of all - unparalleled leadership. It simply is not enough to say that he reached the pinnacle of his profession in 2009 when he was named Oceanographer of the Navy and Navigator of the Navy, the ultimate brass rings of the 1800 Community. He had plenty of "reserve in the tank" and did so much more.

In the very twilight of his career, he became the Director, Task Force Climate Change and assumed responsibility as Director of Oceanography, Space and Maritime Domain Awareness. And, in his final role as Assistant Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Information Dominance here at OPNAV, he not only stepped in to pinch hit at the height of POM season, but slammed one homer after another as he elevated N2/N6 to an altogether new level of play, setting markedly higher standards for staff efficiency, effectiveness and productivity. But there is so much more to Dave than his Navy successes would indicate.

As an oceanographer and meteorologist, Dr. Titley's expertise is widely known and deeply respected not only within our Navy, but across the federal government and among his international peers. A member of the American Meteorological Society and a mainstay in scientific and academic circles, his contributions have been profound, enduring and far-reaching, a true testament to his unabiding passion and dedication to his profession. And he is still not done! After a short break, he will shift to civilian attire and report to the Department of Commerce as the Deputy Under Secretary for Operations at the National Oceanographic and Atmospheric Administration, essentially NOAA's Chief Operating Officer. An incredible second career for an incredible Naval officer.

I ask you all to please join me in wishing Dave and Kathy the absolute best of luck in their post-Navy adventures! For Dave and Kathy - On behalf of the N2/N6 staff and the entire Information Dominance Corps, please accept our sincere best wishes as you begin the next leg of your life's journey. Fair winds and following seas! All the best and Very Respectfully, Kendall

President's Report

FROM THE PRESIDENT

I am once again honored to assume the position of President of our Association. We will do our best to keep the organization moving forward into the future. Carol and I are sorry we did not get to Colorado Springs. We had a couple items come up and had to cancel our hotel reservations at the last minute. I have read all the minutes of the meetings from the reunion and from what I have read a good time was had by all and the meetings were quite productive.

We are now looking forward to Las Vegas on the May 5, 2013. We have always had a great time in Las Vegas and look forward to another good reunion. Alan Davis is working hard on planning the reunion and will be needing some assistance. Be prepared to step up when the need arises.

You will read in this issue about a proposed change to our Constitution and Bylaws concerning length of terms for our officers. This will be the first printing and we will print a reminder in the February 2013 issue of The Aerograph.

Our Aerograph Editor, Charlie Jordan, has asked to be relieved of that position. His bulk mail facility is being closed down, and after six years he is ready for a break. Charlie has made great strides during his tenure as editor striving to upgrade each issue of the newsletter he produced. The new editor will have big shoes to fill, and I don't want to scare him by making that statement. Yes we do have a new editor. xAG2 Gary Cox, one of our webmasters has volunteered to serve the NWSA in that capacity. He is not sure about bulk mailing of the printed issues, but we will be able to work around that. I will be talking to two of our members that said they could handle that duty for Gary. Gary's address, email address and phone number is in this issue so you can start sending your Aerograph information to him instead of Charlie.

We also need to replace Mike Gilroy as chair of the scholarship committee. I have been in touch with a couple members to fill that position, but will gladly accept any volunteers that might want to apply. The primary concern of the scholarship chair will be to ensure the AMS issues scholarships according to our agreement with them, and to find ways to raise money for the scholarship fund.

I hope this will be an exciting year for the Association in reaching out to our members and to those we have not heard from for a few years. We will be looking at a three-fold plan to reach our objectives:

- 1) Improve Association Outreach and Communications
- 2) Increase first time attendees at NWSA Functions
- 3) Improve fundraising and donations for the scholarship program

I have appointed 1st VP Mike Gilroy to lead this effort. Mike will be contacting our Chapters' leadership to seek feedback and assistance to make this effort successful. I ask you to give us a hand and help revitalize our Association by renewing old friendships and making new ones. Look for information from Mike Gilroy on the subject.

As you will see in the Association Officers section I still have a few positions to fill but I'm positive they will be filled before the November issue.

Once again, I look forward to working with you and ask for cooperation with all we strive to accomplish.

CWO-4 Bill Bowers, USN RET
NWSA President

BINNACLE LIST

WHERE IS AGCM FRED BAILLIE?

Captain Corbeille recently became concerned regarding the whereabouts of AGCM Fred Baillie. AGCM Baillie had served in Forrestal while Captain Baillie was his Division Officer. Additionally, AGCM Baillie had served as Master Chief of the AG ratings for a number of years.

A few days ago (maybe even yesterday) you forwarded a missive that originated with Fred Baillie, using "Fast Freddie" as his e-mail handle. Date on the message was some time in 2005. I deleted it without thinking, having noted its age. In any event, I am reminded that Fred Baillie is no longer a source of messages. I telephoned him back in December, having noted that we no longer hear from him, and I wondered what was going on. His wife told me he reads everything that comes in, but no longer sends anything out. Problem was Alzheimer's. She put Fred on the phone and we had a good and lengthy conversation.

I have not talked with him since. A mutual friend advises me that Fred's latest status is "Whereabouts Unknown". His wife was, allegedly, trying to get him into a VA facility. I have no idea how that all turned out. The mutual friend is "Jeane Cake" in the Cc address field. If you have any info, Jeane, perhaps you could relay it to all addressees to whom this went. There are no 'Blind copy' addressees. Since Fred was Master Chief Petty Officer of the Naval Weather Service, there are lots of folks out there who would like to know what his status is.

Frenchy Corbeille

Good Morning.....I just found out from his daughter more info about Fred. I am not sure about the VA facility status, but just talked to a nurse at his current address: .Gulf Breeze Courtyard 3428 Gulf Breeze Parkway Room1211 Gulf Breeze, FL.

Some days, Fred doesn't want to get up, or eat I was informed. I suggested they call him "Master Chief", and he might oblige. His nurse said, "Well it's worth a try! He will never forget that title.

Jeane Seymour

Since sending my last I have received two updates from Jeane; I will paste both of them in below for your edification. Fred Baillie was a long-time member of the Looper Trooper Net and provided a good deal of humorous input. One might even say Fred never saw a message that he did not care to forward. I miss him.

The "Sue" mentioned in the text is Fred's second wife, of about 5 years. Jeane is a Navy widow, telephone and e-mail friend to me.

Frenchy Corbeille

Good Morning.....I just found out from his daughter more info about Fred. I am not sure about the VA facility status, but just talked to a Nurse at his current address:

.Gulf Breeze Courtyard
3428 Gulf Breeze Parkway
Room1211
Gulf Breeze, FL.

Some days, Fred doesn't want to get up, or eat I was informed. I suggested they call him "Master Chief", and he might oblige. His nurse said, "Well it's worth a try! He will never forget that title.

Additional info for you Frenchy....4 days after he went missing, the daughter's' were informed of his location. It is over a toll bridge and costs $8.00 to visit. When they went to visit him they found his bed, TV, recliner chair and dresser had been brought from home and set up.

He says he wants to go home, and even took pictures down getting ready to do that.

His wife told them "You are allowed to visit him ONLY if you don't upset him"....so they are very careful what they say. They do not know if he is still on the list for the VA Home.

I asked if he could have a phone call...None are allowed in his room. They said yes, and I think a call from you might do him good. For obvious reasons I did not share this with everyone. 850-934-1662

I can not call because Sue dislikes me. She may think there was more to my friendship with Fred than there was, or I think it's probably because of my closeness to family members. All I can do is advise his daughter, and suggest ways to make him happier.

I know he used to love to go to the Doctors at the Base hospital, rather than civilian Drs.....I asked why? And he said they addressed him as "Master Chief"...

Take care my friend

Jeane Cake

I called the number provided by Jeane (850 934-1662) and reached an office of some type; a lady patched my call through to Fred's room. His response to my query "How you doing?" was "Fair to Middlin". He seemed to know who I am and we had a brief conversation, re-hashing some of our times together on Forrestal. He seemed quite unenthusiastic, bordering on depressed, from my long range vantage point. Some light talk about the toll of aging on memory banks elicited a small chuckle. He said the knee repairs done last year went well, but my assessment is that it was shortly after those repairs that his memory bank started on a downturn.

I am not even close to being a psychiatrist, but I believe phone calls from shipmates will do positive things for him. He seemed of the opinion that nobody out here cares much about him. Addressing him as "Master Chief" got his immediate attention and I recommend that callers use that approach.

Subject: Re Fred Baillie

I just talked to his daughter again last night....they have had lots of flooding in Pensacola, but she has been able to visit Fred. She said he is in a much better mood, is cooperating with the nurses...all the staff call him Master Chief now, and he may be getting mail or calls from your fellow weathermen..?? Whatever the reason, it's a good thing. She had heard from a nurse, that he was allowed to go out for lunch in town with relatives. Terri asked his wife if she was allowed to take him out.

She replied, "Yes as long as you don't take him to a Bar".....so the animosity continues, but hopefully won't distract from the current improvement.

My thanks to Jeane for enabling this communication link. She is a tried and true Navy wife. From: Jeane Cake

NWSA Communications Plan 2012-2013

This year, our 1st VP has been assigned to develop new ways to “UNREP” and refuel the Association with new members and bring old shipmates back into active participation. We hope to see many new faces in Las Vegas next may where the motto is “LET IT RIDE”!

Please feel free to contact me with questions or ideas.

MORE HISTORY OF THE RATE

Also noted on the original list was that the first four NavalWxSvc Command MCPO's were in order:

Bill Heagly, Bob Nicholas, Ron Palmer, and Fred Baillie does that ring a bell with you??

If you either of y'all decide to put the list out to our community, it would be great to have the folks out there fill in any blanks, like the missing first names, and offer any corrections of which they may be aware.

New subj: I have been enjoying the AG class pictures on the web site. Because of my tours as AGA and AGB school instructor, I can probably fill in some of the blank spots regarding the rosters of classes I taught. But don't know to whom they should be sent??

Really sorry you are having to give up editor job Charlie, your work has been 4.0 all the way-warm regards,

Sometime in early seventies, Roy Harger and "Marlin Spike" Bud Scott started to put together a list of AGCMs, and while looking through some old AG stuff recently, I found this copy.

No guarantee of the accuracy, quite likely a few omissions, but interesting nevertheless. There may be crossover between the years regarding selection year or actual promotion year due to changes in the test dates and promotion quotas.

Have no idea of how many listed as alternates were promoted, but believe most did get picked up.

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

I suppose that you get lots of suggestions re inclusion in the Aerograph. Wish to suggest a couple of more, if I may.

This is prompted by the note about the first Wave Master Chief. Interesting and appreciate it.

There are two other landmark chiefs that, in my opinion, merit mention.

First, Marybelle Kuegle. The first Wave to make AGC. She put on the hat in about 1950-51.

Secondly, James Larry Wherry. The first black man to make AGC. Am guessing that he made it in about 1970. I worked under AGC Frank Pogar (USS Bennington) in the late 50's and brought Jim (an undesignated striker) from the deck force and got him started in weather.

I hope that you don't mind my bringing this to your attention.

COLORADO FIRES

In case you haven't heard, the Flying W Ranch was burned to the ground Tuesday, by the Waldo Canyon fire west of Colorado Springs. What a loss! I'm glad we saw it when we did.

Here is the newspaper report:

The AF Academy was evacuated, but I haven't heard about any of its structures being burned.

Travel via the Moon

If you didn't go along to the top of the "Front-range", up around the 7000 ft level, you missed a great trip when we went to NWSA #38 in Colorado Springs. Moon and CinchHouse have been to 37 of these events and there has never been a bad one! The next one is scheduled to be in Vegas next spring with "Pepsicola" bidding on the 2014 event, probably in late autumn or early fall. It may be just a bit early to put these two in your "scheduled events" book, but planning on meeting old friends, seeing places you've were stationed at or visited, or just meeting the friends you've made over the years....makes these goings-on worth every penny you might spend.

And #38, put on with a lot of great events/trips and meetings, was conducted and planned by mainly one guy! Earl made numerous trips from the Seattle area down to Colo. to arrange for a great hotel (they just couldn't do enough for us), tours and schedules that gave everyone some outstanding things to see, yet get to all meetings and business items without missing the surrounding area. Master Chiefs don't usually let LCDR's do too much on their own, but Mr. Kerr.....you get a 4.0 on this job!!!

Our Aerograph Editor, Charlie Jordan announced that this issue will be his final edition of our quarterly newsletter. And Charlie, for your many years of excellent work, we ALL say thank you for the outstanding job you have done on keeping us informed and in touch with each other. It has not been confirmed, but the upcoming President will have to make the decision on our new editor.

And as usual, Libby and Obie (better known as PJ by people who count) will be doing their usual outstanding job of keeping the books straight and assisting our new editor.

The hotel's FREE shuttle to and from the airport kept a little money in our pocket too. It should be mentioned....we tried to bring just a little class to the USAF academy with a short visit there (beautiful church) but they responded by really dumping some rain on us for the remainder of that Sat. tour and trying to see some very interesting rocks and scenery nearby. Present weather 51 might have been OK, but 82 with and occasional 95 was a bit much.....alright, who ever doesn't remember those numbers...go to the back of the class.

Packing for travel soon....remember, this is the best and least expensive time of the year to travel....kids are going back to school, vacation times are over, and most important airline travel/cost is DOWN. You may notice, baggage cost continue to go up....mainly because the airlines are paying so much for fuel, so instead of raising airline prices they now add on more baggage fees. Your suitcase weighs more than 40 pounds (pay more), measures too big (pay more), carry-on too big (pay more), more than one carry-on (pay more)....are you getting a clue here? Pack smartly and check your ONE bag that doesn't take a crane to lift it on the scale....with no carry-on larger than a purse. You might also remember to put an empty plastic bag in your suitcase which can not only carry shoes, dirty laundry or even that couple of pounds of "overweight" you can take out of the suitcase and carry on. You can also put your jewelry or gifts that you will be buying in that plastic bag. One final item...

NO liquids or lotions or salves in your CARRY-ON or purse....or a present for someone wherever you're going!

Put those items in your SUITCASE because you better believe that TSA will confiscate them when you go thru screening.

Have a great trip.....you deserve it.

CHAPTER NEWS

SOUTHEAST CHAPTER

LT TODD McDONALD,
President (Reelected 2 year term)

AGCS STEVE TURCO, 1st
Vice President

AGC BOB JOHNSON, 2nd
Vice President (Reelected 2 year term)

AGCS FRANK ANDREWS, Sect/Treas

The NWSA SE Chapter held its Spring Meeting at the Orange Buffet in Orange Park on April 19th at 1900 hours.

All officers were present. Members and Guest present: AGCM Bob Bentley, LT Fred Bergman, Dewey Walker (U.S. Army Retired, Guest), LCDR Dick

Pritchard, AGC Thomas & Virginia Morgan, AGC Bob & Charline Johnson, AGCS Steve Turco, AGCS Lloyd & Daisy Corbett, AGCS Frank & Jane Andrews & Guest, LT Todd & Cheryl McDonald & Guest, AGCS Glenn Barton, AGCM Joe McGarr, AG1 Clarence, and LT Fred & Lina Bergman. Following the dinner, we welcomed everyone and their guest by telling them that this is the largest number we've had at a regular meeting in several years.

First thing on the AGENDA was election of officer for two year terms. LT Todd McDonald was reelected to serve another term of two years and AGC Bob Johnson was reelected to serve another term of two years as 2nd VP. At the 2013 April meeting, AGCS Steve Turco's term will expire and at the 2014 April meeting, the term of Sect/Treas will expire.

We read the names of the recent AG's and Officers of the Weather Service that have sailed from port and request for fair winds and smooth seas: AGCS Gerald Edwards, Capt Sam Houston, LT David Lieb, AG1 Robert Wishek (local), AGCS Camilo Martinez, and AG1 Patrick Garamen.

Discussed the minutes from prior meeting and that they are not posted in the AEROGRAPH. They had been posted on the National Office Web Site. Suggested that members check out the Web Site. We discussed the need of someone to take over the AEROGRAPH and that Jacksonville would be a great place to have it because we have the postal office here that can handle the bulk mailing. No one would assume the duties because they travel during the summer and fall or were still working.

We must do everything we can to build our membership. Recruit when and where ever we can find them. We didn't have a single Active Duty person as a member at the present time. Since we are not having any additional members come out from the fleet, we must beat the bushes for new members. I called CDR Jerry Struck recently and his thoughts are that without additional new members, NWSA may last only 5 to 10 years more. AGCS Lloyd Corbett came up with a suggestion, that maybe we could have some of our meeting in local areas outside of the Jacksonville or Orange Park area, maybe in Orlando, Charleston, or Tallahassee. This may result in new members from these area. Currently we are sending out e-mails for AG's and Officers that live within 150 miles of Jacksonville. We could have National Officers attending the local meetings and that may result in additional members attending. Maybe the National Office could assist with expenses of having these officers attend the local meetings. About five years ago at the Reunion meeting, it was voted that there would be someone appointed to head up recruitment program but it has not been activated or effective. Maybe that would be a place to start at the next reunion. NWSA SE has worked to keep our members informed by using a data base for sending out e-mails, and when we did not get a response to the e-mail (after 3 attempts), we have started making telephone calls. We send out over a 100 e-mails each time we have information to be sent out about our meetings. If we do not received a RSVP from the e-mails about our meetings that is when we start making calls. We send out the e-mails at least 3 time before we start making the calls. We had been mailing letters when there was no reply, but the cost was just too high. The cost was about 60 cents per letter for printing and mailing. We were mailing almost 100 letters per meeting, but we had to stopped that since we have no dues to cover the cost. For this meeting, we had a near record number of members and guests. Our longest distance anyone traveled was from South Carolina (thanks to AGC KILMER). We had responses from more than 40 stating that they were unable to attend our meeting. Most stated that they or spouse were still working, medical issues, the distance, traveling, or were baby sitting. We found that about 50% of the calls were not completed because the phone was disconnected or no longer in service. Many members are now switching to cell phones as their main phone service and they did not keep their old phone number. If you change your information, please send in a change of address to our office. If you send the information to NWSA SE, it is updated the same day I receive it and we will forward it to the National Office if you want that service. We adjourned at 2010 hours after another great meal. Late Information: Our Christmas Party will be held on December 7th, Cocktails at 1730 hours and Dinner at 1900 hours. We will hold our Winter Meeting following dinner. It will be held at the Fleet Reserve Branch 091 on Collins Road in Jacksonville. More details will follow late October via e-mail. Guess will be welcome. Estimated cost $15.00 per person. Children 12 and under FREE.

We are in the summer doldrums. After the great Colorado Springs #38 NWSA reunion there is a natural letdown around here. There was the enjoyable Memorial Day weekend, then back to the doldrums. Even The Weather Channel is not worth watching any more—who needs continuous commercials anyway? Interest did pick up temporarily when Ken & Joyce Smith came into town as part of their mandatory attendance at Maryland family graduation ceremonies. A great group of friends gathered for lunch at Tuscan Brio Ristorante in West Annapolis (formerly referred to as Parole). Webmaster Gary Cox added that bit of activity to NWSA web page. The visitors hit the road back to Hilton Head SC to resume golfing. Richie Freeman finally took off for her extended visit to the Philippines where she has family of some sort. Randall Richardson's sister advised that they are settled very well in Tennessee after vacating Hawaii with its high cost of living. The effects of his stroke are severe and progress is slow. Recommend reading about his post-war career as a pilot with China Air Transport, which followed his wartime tour with Flying Tigers. He was in Class 20 Primary Aerographer School, graduating January 1941.

U.S.S. IOWA (BB-61) ON DISPLAY

Finally, she is out of the Suisun Bay mud, original mast re-stepped, towed under the Golden Gate Bridge and moored in her permanent home Berth 87 in the Port of Los Angeles in San Pedro.

Grand opening to the public is 07 July. Her three sister ships have long since been seen on display in Norfolk, Camden and Pearl Harbor.

The Pacific Battleship Center, a non-profit group, brought IOWA back to life, had her refurbished, and found a home where she will become an interactive naval museum. IOWA is the last battleship in the world to be saved and turned into a permanent museum.

PotChap people gathered at the Roper residence in Upper Marlboro MD on 16th June for a picnic with all the trimmings. Vince & Robby are great hosts. Of the twenty-one guests we had nine voting members for the short business meeting, which included election of officers for 2012-2013. See above masthead for results. Our thanks go to the outgoing bridge of officers who kept our chapter going.

While there are still questions about the NWSA Scholarship Program we did not delve deeply into that subject. Instead, our advice to members is to read definitive information in the August issue of The Aerograph, as this subject was explained in detail at NWSA38/ColoSpgs. Members are asked to continue their financial support.

Among subjects covered at our meeting was recent death of RADM John R. Seesholtz USN (ret), a former Oceanographer of the Navy. A letter of condolence was sent to Marylee.

There was a retirement ceremony at the Naval Observatory for RADM David Titley on 15 June – Oceanographer of the Navy and Navigator of the Navy – and under his OPNAV hat Ass't Deputy Chief of Naval Operations for Information Dominance N2/N6. He next moves to NOAA and assumes the job of Deputy Under Secretary for Operations.

As has happened in the past, Titley is being relieved at the Naval Obsy by RADM Jonathan White USN, who just hauled down his one-star flag as CNMOC on Stennis Space Center.

And the White family is not the only one traveling lately and in the near future. Many PotChap members are heading for distant places now that schools have closed for the summer. Marge & Don Cruse will spend half of July at Camp of the Woods up north in Speculator NY. George & Diana Delano have a trip to Michigan planned, followed by NATO MILOC October reunion in Flagstaff. Tom Berkeridge will probably vector off to another exotic place, as he normally does.

Meanwhile, Will & Ella Gould will be restricted to frequent trips to Balto and Johns Hopkins where, since 04 April, he is being evaluated for poor balance and impaired mobility. Tom & Gladys Beasley and friends still muster at Leisure World Maryland periodically for "Lunch with Duke," now more than ever an essential move. Bob Ducharme is nearly blind. The "Mini M&Ms" gather regularly for lunch or dinner—NATO MILOC friends who served at one time or another in Brussels. Dave & Harriett Sokol are now in the process of hosting these friends to dinner at Falcon's Landing where they reside.

In California MD there will be a surprise 79th Birthday Party for Barbara Hansen on 21 July in Wildwood Lodge. Happy Birthday Barbara!

Finally, PotChap correspondence that was originated this quarter:

Letter congratulating RADM David Titley USN(ret)

IRS Form 990-E

Letter of condolence to Lorraine Garrett upon death of Dick.

HRC Member Activity and News

Jack Salvato CWO4 USN ret: Ann and I recently went cruising again at the end of May. The seven day voyage, as always, was great. The food was excellent and the entertainment was fabulous. A te everything in sight and never gained an ounce. (Ah, make that pounds) Ports visited were in Haiti, Cayman Islands, Jamaica and Mexico. The weather remained beautiful throughout our cruise. On the way home we picked up our grandson who had been visiting in Florida. We are looking forward to our 12 day Feb 2013 cruise out of Baltimore to the Caribbean once again. Ann and I are expecting our first GREAT grandchild any day now. Jack turned 75 on 2 July.

Mrs. Joan Akers: Has been having some serious difficulties of late. She hurt her back. Her friend Frank Strout had a serious operation to remove a spot on his lung and she has been tending to his needs. Her AC broke. Gutters needed repairs on the house. The storms of late June knocked out her TV. Car battery died. Through it all Joan finds time to go out yard sailing, and getting involved with BSA and flag disposal. Keep her in your thoughts and prayers. BUT, through it all, the ever optimistic "weather mouse" says "I am doing better, and when I am not I refuse to think about it." Her family recently visited and had an all hands on deck working party and fixing lots of the listed problems on Joan's priority list. She got a new TV as well.

John Chubb ADM USN ret: and wife Ive joined their son, Chris, and his wife, Theresa, and granddaughter, Sarah, in Hawaii for 15 days of fun exploring volcanoes, hot sea pools, and coral reefs on the Big Island and adventure ranches, canyons and SNUBA ((SNUBA is snorkeling but with an air hose connected to a small raft with a tank of air)), on Kauai. Michael Williams AG1 USN ret: Following received from Mike on 7/11/12, have added Mike to our HRC distribution list and we look forward to seeing him at the next meeting.

"Hi, Fay I don't believe we have ever crossed paths. I'm AG1(ret) Mike Williams. I was wondering when you guys are meeting. I live in Norfolk close to Cagney's and would love to join you and help out in any way I can. Please tell Bob Steiner that Willy said hello. He will know me from Pax River back in the 70's. Looking forward to seeing old friends and acquaintances and meeting all of you. Thanks.

Also they have found other things like wooden nickels and will bring them as well. We hope Kathie will bring her Granddaughter Rachael with her. Rachael is extremely interested in a career as a Meteorologist (wants to be part of the WMO and work in Geneva). We would like to help in anyway we can, for her to achieve her goals. Grace was given by John Chubb, and the fantastic meal was enjoyed by everyone. There was food everywhere. The Chubbs have outdone themselves again. If anyone whet away hungry it was their problem. Everyone brought all kinds of good dishes, always a variety. It is a wonder, there is always a balance of salads, snacks and desserts. GOOD GOING HRC.

The meeting was called to order by President Chuck Fifield at about 235pm, before anyone could fall asleep after over eating. The pledge was led by CMAA Frank Muscari who had brought a large flag for us to face, it waved proudly over the gathering all afternoon.

The President asked everyone to introduce their guests. It was suggested by Ives Chubb, HRC should ask members to find old Name Tags to use at meetings and HRC should make permanent tags for members and one time tags for guests. This will be an agenda item for our next Board Meeting/Meeting.

The next Board Meeting will be held prior to the 9/16 meeting and details concerning that meeting will be forthcoming.

The president asked Carmen Lee to give an outline of the charity we will focus on at the next meeting. Carmen and daughter Pam gave a great presentation about the overall charity of Mental Health in Virginia and the "Beach House" in Virginia Beach which they are very active in supporting. Our special quarterly charity in addition to our VA Hospital efforts is a great addition to our efforts. A "pass the hat" collection will be made on 9/16, checks are accepted. Anyone having a special charity they would like to suggest as a worthy cause, please let us know.

OLD BUSINESS:

Bob Steiner reviewed the social event at Wallops Island. The date has been firmed up as Monday 8/20. Bob suggests anyone wishing to go on this day long tour if we have 20 or less people, or two half day tours if over 20, should contact the Navy Gateway Inns and Suites for reservations ASAP, 1-877-986-9258. Make sure you check on all the options for staying there. Bob will have full details concerning the gathering soon. This will include costs for the day. So far Bob has the following details.....

"Following is the list of those that will be attending, The Fifields, The Steinbracks, the Muscaris, The Lees, Bob Wright, The Chubbs plus neighbor Jeffery, Ted Lemond, Marilyn McDonald, The Crossleys, Bob Steiner, Tammie Pierce plus her grandsons, Austin and Brandon Watson. I have a total of 20 people - a full bus load. The tour details, schedule of events are being worked out at Wallops and I should get the program back within a week or two. I am trying to get lunch reservations at Wrights Restaurant in Atlantic. Waiting to hear back. The tour begins at 0900L and will end between 1500L and 1530L. Pickup place TBA, but the Navy base or recreation center look the best. Details to follow. the bus is good, but will verify."

A collection for the VA Cemetery Wreath Fund was taken. The generosity of HRC was again noted and a check for at least $200 will be sent to the Horton Wreath Society Treasurer in the name of HRC. If you would like to witness what your money has helped with, the wreath placement will be December 15 at 930AM at the Committal Shelter in Suffolk VA. There is still time to give to this effort, contact Bob at bcdaiGLE@cox.net

NEW BUSINESS:

Because Joan Akers was not able to join us at the picnic, HRC will delay the possible contribution to the BSA near her home for the 6/30 American Flag proper disposal. HRC contributions to the VA hospital were given to Bob Daigle, he will deliver them to Joan.

A birthday and bon voyage cake was presented to Kathie Clark, it was her birthday on the date of the picnic and she leaves for Idaho on 8/8. Kathie and will be missed. There were many cards presented to her as well. We will keep in touch with her and make sure she knows we are thinking of her. Kathie and her family donated an old weather recorder to HRC. Bob Daigle will take it to the FWC Norfolk as he thinks they are developing a history section. The Scott family also donated a plaque, wooden nickels and a Scott album from a dinner they hosted in 1996. Fay has mailed the album and plaque to the NWSA historian Harry Hale. The following note was received from Kathie....

"Just a quick note to thank the HRC for including my family in your annual picnic at the Chubbs beautiful home. As last year, we truly enjoyed ourselves. Everyone was so nice to us and made us feel totally welcome and part of the group. Rachel was especially grateful for all the people wanting to help her out with her future meteorological plans. I can't begin to express to you how special you all made me feel on what started out to be a somewhat sad day. The cake was not only lovely, but delicious, too. And the cards were wonderful. It was a wonderful surprise. I am going to miss all of you and will look forward to rejoining you when I return, if you will have me. I will definitely be keeping in touch. Thank you, again, for everything. Kathie"

A tropical plant containing a card with a check donation of $100 to the Chubb's American Legion Post 56, was given to the Chubbs for their efforts at this picnic. What a super day it was. Thanks John and Ives. We hope the Post much success in the future, with your leadership and continued support success is a sure thing. For HRC; if you are on the Eastern Shore near Chariton, it is highly recommended to try the Post's Friday night dinners. Donna and I enjoyed a great shrimp feast there. Each Friday it is something different.

The next social gathering might be a tour of the National Weather Service Office in Wakefield. Possible tentative dates are early December of 2012 or January 2013. There would be a tour and lecture of the weather office, other guests will be Cheryl Nelson, ex-TV Meteorologist from Norfolk station and Penn State Alumni, perhaps a Weather Journalist from Fort Lee and others. Lunch or dinner would be at the Virginia Diner. Fay will be getting more information out in the coming weeks. This would also be a chance to assist one of our own, Rachel Dean. (Bud and Bev Scott's granddaughter) Rachel is a rising Junior in High School. She has a keen desire to.

one day not only be a Meteorologist but she wants to work at the World Weather Building in Geneva. Lofty goals for a fantastic deserving lady. During the social event we will help her on her way, with possible Internship suggests at Wallops Island, with the NWS. She will get lots of suggestion as to schools to attend when she heads off to college. Scholarship suggestions including the NWSA/AMS applications.

Congratulations to Earl and Lyn Kerr along with Tom and Mary Ann Miovias for an outstanding Reunion in Colorado Springs. It was a very good reunion. Unfortunately, the attendance keeps getting smaller.

One thing that we can be thankful for: the fact that it was held in May, not June.

CHAPTER ACTIVITIES

The SOCAL Chapter held its July business/luncheon meeting on July 5, 2012 at the Admiral Baker Navy Golf Course Restaurant. Attendees were John Rodriguez, Morry Summey, Bernie and Delores Cohenour, Al Hassen, and David and Lois Rue. Current Chapter officers are President Bernie Cohenour, Vice President Steve Smith and Sec./Treas. Morry Summey. The group unanimously voted the officers for another term of office, running from 1 July 2012 through 30 June 2012. As requested by the NWSA Scholarship Chairman, Mike Gilroy, the group was briefed on the inclusion of our program with the AMS. The group was shown the write up in the AMS Magazine. The Sec./Treas. Reported on the E-Mail received from Libby O’Brien regarding the need for each chapter to file IRS Form 99-W. Morry Summey and John Rodriguez, as the only Chapter Members who attended in Colorado Springs briefed the members on the Reunion business meetings

The next Chapter activity is the Labor Day Picnic, usually held in September. Details will be worked out at a later date.

Chapter Activities

John and Fuji Rodriguez entertained crew members of the JMSDF Ship "SHIRANNE". She was originally scheduled to arrive in San Diego on June 18th, but was delayed until the morning of the 19th. She departed San Diego on 21 June at 9 AM. We had a sit down dinner for 15 people on the 19th and another smaller get together on the 20th.

Our younger daughter will be arriving on 21 July from the Davis/Sacramento area and will be here until August 7th. The current Japanese liaison will be leaving in August and we will be attending a gathering to day Sayonara and to greet his replacement.

Over the past few months, Bernie and Delores Cohenour have attended three Fleet Weather Center San Diego Socials after working hours. The socials were well attended.

On 29 June, Bernard Cohenour attended Scripps Institute of Oceanography’s 50th Anniversary for the Research Platform FLIP (Floating Instrument Platform).

5 July, Bernard and Delores will attend Fleet Weather Center San Diego’s Dining Out at the community center in Coronado. Following that, on 6 July, they will attend FWC-SD’s Change of Command. Captain Ted Monroe will be relieved by Captain Uises.

The chapter received a letter from chapter member Paul Grisham. Paul has been volunteering on the USS Midway Museum as a docent for about five years. Unfortunately, his schedule precludes his attending our regular chapter meetings. He offered several comments. One was in regards to discussions the chapter had regarding the possibility of setting up a weather display as part of the Midway tour. His comments were much the same as we had received from CEO McLaughlin, namely that the old space was too remote, had been stripped of all equipment, and was generally not a possibility.

On another subject, he commented about the article regarding the first Wave Master Chief. I quote: "Enjoyed reading the article but did not know her." Continuing his quote, that it occurred to him that an article would be in order regarding the first Wave CPO – Mary Kuegle. She put on the hat in 1950 or 1951. Also the first black man to make CPO was James Larry Wherry. "(I had a small hand in getting him into the rating when on the Big Ben in 1959)". End of quote.

Morry Summey traveled to Vallejo in the Bay Area to visit daughter, Martie, and to see my one year old Great Granddaughter.

The beginning of April saw our area with 60% of average rainfall for the season. The end of April with above average rainfall for the month seen us just a tad under 11 inches for the season which is 70% of normal. May was a cool dry month with temperatures about 2 degrees below normal and rainfall of .1 inch below a normal of .44 in. for a season total of 11.1 inch. Carl's automated temperature system malfunctioned a few days in June, so the June temperatures were incomplete though seemed to me to be near normal. A good storm 4 June dumped a third of an inch of rain which along with one day later in June with .02 inch made our precipitation for June way above normal which is 0.12 in. For some non desert areas of the country these tiny amounts of rain seem insignificant where often a day's rainfall is larger than our yearly total. The Houston TX July area has more than they would like and resultant flooding is more than an inconvenience.

Saturday mornings are when Carl Thormeyer gives the forecast for our local area. With inland heating and cool ocean currents bathing the coastal area we live on, a marine inversion layer dominates our cool coastal weather and days or weeks pass with minor changes in the level of the marine layer, so Carl who is allotted a certain amount of time at frequent intervals on Sat. morning has to struggle to find enough variation to make the weather forecast interesting to the public. Seldom does the TV run on Sat. morning in our home but 14 July 2012, it was on when I got up as Gloria was watching the local news. I noticed how Carl was explaining the low coastal overcast this weekend in mid July. As he predicted the stratus started dissipating around noon so we will have some afternoon sunshine which is normal for our summer weather. It is still relatively cool with temperatures in the mid to high 60's with a light cool breeze on the immediate coast. While the Big Valley north and south of California's capitol of Sacramento hovers around 100F and cooling units struggle to make indoor temperatures comfortable, we on the ocean welcome long sleeve shirts and light jackets.

The cool temperatures continued into early June but the local chapter picnic on 3 June saw the temperature moderate a bit with the sun coming out around noon at Archer Park. Those attending the June Picnic were Don & Carolyn Mautner with Glenn & Keiko Handlers who handled the barbeque. Then Capt. Erika Sauer, USN, current Commanding Officer of FNOC; Dean Morford, Marjorie Petit, Tom and Mary Callahan, Glenn & Dolores Hamilton, Jack & Valerie Jensen, Ace Task and Bev Morford, Harry & Pat Nicholson, Dick & Mary Lou Ward were down from Roseville CA, Forrest and Madge Williams, Ralph Wrenn and Lady Marilyn Cole attended. Don & Mimi Wise from Carmichael with family for a total of 6 were welcome. Don and Mimi spend half their time at a home on Bohol in the Philippines but spring and summer find them at home in Carmichael adjacent to Sacramento, CA just off highway 50 east out of California's capitol city. Gloria and I sat with at the same table with Herb & Barbara Hansen, lunching along with Barbara Lewit. A chat with Herb revealed his duty at Kodiak Alaska coincided with long time friend George and June Russoy.

Harry gave a brief talk about the NWSA reunion in CO Springs with news the next reunion will be held in Las Vegas, NV.

Denise Sallee indicated if her dad was up to it they would show but Ralph and Dottie Sallee didn't make it this year.

This summertime report is "slim pickins" for news.

Lloyd Corbett called a few days into July asking if I had any recent contact with Keith Hall who was shown in the last FRA magazine as having passed to the spirit world. Keith sent me a birthday greeting a couple of years ago but I have not been in touch with him since and did not know he was ailing.

A letter arrived from Elmer Erdei after I sent the above to Charlie Jordan. Elmer reminded me of a letter he sent last Feb. about Mary Jane having a stroke around the 10th of Feb. Mary Jane has slowly been recuperating since then.

Elmer sent a bit of history that may be of interest to some in our community”

In Dec. 1965 Lt. Elmer Erdei and AG1 Phil Leeds were ordered to Pascagoula MS as nucleus crew for the USS Tripoli, LPH 10. Shortly, AGCS Ted Roloff joined them. Phil and Ted kept tabs on how Ingalls Shipyard was constructing the Weather Office. Lt. Erdei was put in charge of checking the other 702 compartments. Men from the various divisions reported daily to the office where Elmer coordinated the progress. In April 1966 the Navy rejected the ship as being unfit for acceptance. The shipyard apologized and made changes to meet Navy specifications and the Tripoli was commissioned 6 Aug. 1966 in Philadelphia:

The Tripoli arrived in San Diego, CA in Nov. 1966. AG1 Phil Leeds was sent to B School at Lakehurst NJ in March 1967. At that time the Tripoli was in the Long Beach CA shipyard. Lt Erdei was TAD to the Long Beach Shore Patrol duty for a month. The Tripoli wound up in WestPac in May 1967 where Elmer got orders in Nov. 1967. He flew to Danang on the way to San Diego, CA then to FWF Quonset Point, RI for duty.

In 1968 Captain Tom Ledow was ComWestPac Met Officer and the Tripoli was named the best underway ships weather office for 1967.

Phil Leeds and wife Ginger stopped in Reno NV in 2011 where he and Elmer had a reunion after over 44 years.

It seems this Tripoli experience was sent in a letter by Elmer sometime in the past but didn't make the Aerograph.

PENSACOLA CHAPTER

Pres Bernie Bauer
Sec./Trea. Bob Kell

Greetings from all in Pensacola. I'll start off with tragic news. Bob Kell suddenly passed away the last week of June. Our sympathy goes out to Bob's wife, Sherry, and their family. There was a service held on 2 July in Cincinnati (his family home). He will be sorely missed by all. We had a quarterly meeting on Sunday, 10 June. The author of these greetings (who will remain anonymous) made a command decision, and decided the Low to our southwest would move to the north and give us nice wx for our gathering. Seventeen inches of rain later, all was well??? Bernie Bauer, Pat and Libby O'Brien, Elspeth Lloyd, and Ed and Gerrie March braved the elements. All attendees carried snorkeling gear as a precaution. Our next meeting, hopefully drier, will be held on the 23rd of September at the "Rodizio Grill". Bernie's wife, Le, will be heading to Vietnam in September for 6 weeks to visit with family. Bernie will be driving north to spend some time with his sister in Pittsburgh. Rose and Art Frazier, report their son Timothy is now in high school after graduating from the 8th grade. They also made a trip to Orlando to celebrate Roses's brother's 50th birthday. Not too many other plans due to school/band events throughout the fall, but have plans to spend Christmas in Pigeon Forge, Tn. Church also keeps Rose and Art busy, with Rose helping with the youth and the women's group and Bible study. Art is also the President of the United Methodist Men's club, and has meetings and events throughout the area, along with being the Lay leader of his church. John Shay's wife, Dottie, continues her gradual improvement following an Oct. 2011 car accident. She was released from the hospital this past May. She receives in-home nursing/physical therapy 2-3 times per week. She has minimal muscle control in her arms and legs, but don't count her out, she is a fighter and won't let these inconveniences get her down. Don't bet against her running a 100 yd. dash sooner, rather than later. John keeps busy assisting her, and is so thankful to have her home. Pat and Libby O'Brien stay busy visiting family and friends, and playing golf, while traveling the highways and byways of North America. After returning from reunion #38, they took two weeks off before starting their next trip to New England, Canada, and the Midwest. That trip was a little over 3900 miles, while the trip to and from reunion was over 5500 miles. Pat says, "We're just breaking in the new car." On their latest trip he and Libby attended grandson Jeff's high school graduation in Simsbury, Ct.; visited with friends Jim and Joan Futtner in Hartford; played some golf with Canadian friends in Ontario; had lunch at the Anchor Bar (home of the original Buffalo Wings) in Buffalo, NY; and spent time with an old shipmate, Don Miller, and his family in Pickerington, Oh. Don and Pat were stationed together at FWC Suitland in the early 60's. Pat hadn't seen Don and his wife Joan since the mid 70's. They finished up their trip by going to Evansville, IN, to visit Libby's daughter Teresa and her family. They arrived there just in time to enjoy four days of record-breaking heat. On the last two trips, the O'Briens have managed to play golf in WVA, KA, CO, MA, VT, ME, and NH thereby getting closer to their goal of playing golf in every state. Another thing on their "Bucket List" is to attend games in all of the major league ball parks. While on the Colorado Springs' trip they stopped in Kansas City and saw a game between the Royals and Red Sox. Speaking of baseball, Pat, Libby, and Bernie Bauer are season ticket holders of Pensacola's new double "A" baseball team, the Blue Wahoos. The Wahoos are a farm team of the Cincinnati Reds. Pat, Libby and Bernie are enjoying the games in the Wahoos' brand, spanking new, ballpark (Go Wahoos). Al and Helen Atwell are slowly but surely surviving cabin fever after Helen had her partial left knee replacement operation in mid March. About one more month of physical therapy for Helen, and they hope to hit the road again and head back up to North Carolina.

No obituary was desired nor provided.

After Class 20 Primary Aerog School graduated a large group climbed on the train to NorVa where we boarded USS HENDERSON (AP-1). It was bitterly cold in NorVa but we were soon enjoying warm wx in Gtmo where eight of us disembarked. We spent the day sitting on the pier with our seabags & hammocks until the promised transportation finally appeared after dark. It was USS GEORGE F. ELLIOTT (APA -13) -- our first experience standing up to eat our supper of multi-hued wieners.

Vic told me he remained aboard the Henny Maru and enjoyed a full duty tour in keeping with new policy of assigning single Aerogs to as many ships as feasible. At that time in history the N A V Y personnel distribution and transportation system consisted of centralized order writing by Bureau of Navigation plus two transport ships. The second transport was USS CHAUMONT (AP-5), known as a "Hog Islander" because of her origin near Philly Navy Yard, and her appearance. These two transports picked up and delivered sailors between the Asiatic Fleet and Boston, touching at every Receiving Ship or Station along the way. The round trip took six months. My first experience with Henny Maru was in 1939 as Sea1/c from USS HULL (DD-350) steaming from San Diego to NorVa and USS TEXAS (BB-35). Lots of chipping & painting. Liberty in Balboa CZ was my first foreign port.

Met Vic in Pappy Welles' NAS Alameda "Aerographer pool" after USS WASP (CV-7) was sunk and I drew new seabag at NRS Treasure Island. We were both AerM2/c -- we all were becoming "Mates" with creation of Warrant Aerographer rank. Vic may have just come ashore from Henny Maru since it was about January 1943. We stood watches together and advanced to AerM1/c. Then I lost track of him again when I returned to sea in Sept 1943.

We shall miss Vic at our NWSA reunions along with the annual competition for "oldest attendee at the banquet." Vic always aced Frank Ivie out by a smidgin.

DECEASED

Beverly Joanne Sinegal Scott, citizen of the world, ambassador for humanity, and a woman who lived a life much fuller than the 78 years counted, departed her physical existence at 5 a.m. on Saturday, April 21st in the comfort presence of her family. Her spirit, however, remains in our hearts, and in the hearts of those she touched and inspired on nearly every continent.

Beverly had a passion for life that was unrivaled. She traveled extensively and made friends around the world from all walks of life. She was talented in so many ways – Bev was a phenomenal cook whose repertoire was influenced by dozens of cultures. As a younger woman, she sang beautifully and once sang for radio. She was an accomplished pianist, and music remained an important aspect of Beverly's life literally to her final minutes with us, and so will be a central part of our celebration of her life. By any measure, there simply has never been a better mother. Her wisdom, tolerance and kindness will continue to influence generations to come. By far her greatest talent was her insight on human nature which, combined with her incomparable compassion, allowed her to touch and enrich the lives of thousands.

AGC L. R. (Mike) Rhine USN RET

Chief Rhine is thought to be one of two remaining WWII ERA Prisoner of War Veterans from the Navy Weather Service Community. He was born on January 26, 1922 in Lodgepole, Nebraska. Shortly after completing high school, Mike joined the Navy in April 1940 and retired in May 1962 after serving 22 years and one month on active duty. During this period, the United States Military saw action in WWII, The Berlin Crisis, the Korean Conflict, and Southeast Asia (Vietnam). His awards and commendations included the Bronze Star Medal with the letter V for valor for service during WWII. Active duty stations included that of Chief Petty Officer in Charge of the Weather Office at China Lake, California.

He attended boot camp at San Diego, California and after graduation, he and many shipmates loaded aboard a Tender for Hawaii. During August 1940, Mike was transferred to the USS New Orleans (CA-32) for duty and in December 1940 he was reassigned to the Philippines and became an Aerographers Mate striker. Being caught by catch 22, he could not attend Aerographers Mate Class A School or make third class because of not attending the required school.

After the Japanese invaded the Philippine Islands and were approaching Manila, he was ordered from the Cavite Naval Base to Corregidor Island and was assigned to the Naval Communications Station as a security guard on the main gate. Upon the surrender of the island, the Japanese allowed them two days to make ready for transfer to Japan as a POW. During those two days, he was assigned to destroy as many of their weapons as possible. After arriving in Japan, he was assigned to a work detail and spent the remainder of War II in a POW Camp.

Upon his release from the POW Camp, he was transported on a troop ship back to the United States for rehab at the Naval Hospital - Oakland, California. With a large number of people returning home from the war, he was then ordered to New Orleans, Louisiana to complete his rehab. A short time later he was assigned to the Navy Air Station, Hutchinson, Kansas. The base was being closed so he spent his time, as a Chief Petty Officer, working as Assistant Manager for the Navy Exchange and Manager of the Enlisted Club. Soon a set of orders arrived and he was transferred to Lakehurst, New Jersey to attend Forecasters School. Mike attended forecasters school as a member of Class 4604 (B-4). The picture on his class on the NWSA website was dated February 02, 1947.

After retiring from the Navy, Mike remained in the Washington, DC area and worked another 18 years for the National Weather Service as an Aviation Forecaster providing weather data to pilots over the Pilot to Forecaster Radio and later in a Management Position.

Mike married Ms. Georgiana Brown while stationed in San Francisco, California on August 12, 1947. They have a daughter currently living in New York. Georgiana passed away on January 11, 1990 and on August 06, 1996 he married Ms. Catherine Norvel. They are currently living in Titusville, Florida.

At the time of my work on the project, he and CWO3 Walter Winfrey were the last two POW Shipmates in the Navy Weather Community. A couple years ago CWO3 Winfrey passed away leaving Chief Rhine as our last POW from WW II. Since then, I have not heard or read about any others being held as a POW.

I served with Dave for a brief time during my duties with the Naval Weather Service. Dave moved to Macclenny and built a great relationship with his friends in that area. He will be missed by the many AG's that he worked with over the years.

He was a good guy. I sent him several letters about our meetings, but when they started coming back with no such person at that address, I gave up hope. I had gotten his old address from some files and it turned out to be wrong.

I had duty with Dave at two different places but not so sure where they were since my heart attack, I just don't remember that much any more.

REUNION #38 FINAL REPORT

This Reunion was some two years in the making and was conducted 15-20 May in Colorado Springs, Colorado (COS).

Not having a local chapter did increase the effort it took the Reunion Committee to put the complete package together and it did take two special trips to COS. The first trip was made just to look over the hotels in the city who offered to host the reunion and then select the winner which was the Crowne Plaza. NWSA has stayed in other hotels in this group and thus a certain confidence that the hotel could provide both the facility and the support for which we have become accustomed. Tom and Mary Ann Miovas made a trip to COS to look over the wide variety of places of interest. All in all, the extra effort resulted in a very fine reunion.

It was widely advertised that the members, who could come early to help with the final preparations, should come a day early. It was gratifying to note that an amazing number of our members did just that. Tuesday 15 May started with Duncan Donuts and coffee. It was a very busy day gathering the materials, meal cards, name tags, hats, shirts, cups and various tickets which were placed in the goodie bags. There was a major run to Ft. Carson to buy consumables such as soda, water, beer and the commissary items. Bob Steiner and Tammie took charge of the wet bar which was spread out in two adjacent bathing tubs and a small over the counter bar. On Wednesday, there was the usual Executive Board meeting and a walking visit to Old Colorado Springs. The evening concluded with a Welcome Aboard pasta salad meal. The first General meeting was held on Thursday and in the evening we had Tacos on the Patio. On Friday there was a bus trip to Manitou Springs. In the evening we bused to the Flying W Ranch for Steak and BBQ and a western night of great entertainment. Saturday was a very busy day starting with a bus trip to visit the beautiful Air Force Cadet Chapel. It should note that there was a rain forced cancellation of a further bus trip to the popular site, Garden of the Gods. In the afternoon there was a General meeting where the voting for the 2014 to 2015 term took place and a Second Executive Board meeting.

The Banquet had a Western Theme and most members came in character with some such as Peter Peterson who came really duded up. This event was again provided with singing by the ladies – Marge Cruse, Lynne Kerr, Gerry Langemo, Betty Ledbetter, Diane Peterson, Robbie Roper and Tammie Pierce. The names of the folks who had won various prizes and who made the final bids for the silent auction were announced. Harry Nickolson won the room upgrade, Marge Cruse won the room raffle for three paid nights, and Libby O'Brien won the 50/50 raffle. Libby was most gracious and turned all the money over to the scholarship fund. There were three silent auction items – Chuck Fifield bought the hand carved Puffin, Bob

Steiner bought the Anchor Pendent and Pete Peterson bought the NWSA tee shirt. There were two bottles of wine raffled off to support the scholarship fund and which were won by Howard Graham and Jeanie Hale.

A number of members showed up on Sunday morning for the field day. Alan Davis was one of the cleanup committee folks which was really great as he will be the Chairman for Reunion 39. Alan took lots of notes as to which items were bought, which were sold and which items could probably be omitted for the Las Vegas Reunion. There was in fact little to do except to move out all the finger foods and beverages. People who drove to the reunion were able to stock up on many of the beverage remnants. The local VFW was the beneficiary of a wide range of all the items which were either not consumed during the reunion or taken by the folks driving home.

As with any gathering there are the usual "Personnel Stories". Bob and Sylvy Titus planned to attend but he had to undergo a major shoulder surgery at the last minute. Bill and Carol Bowers could not attend as he was a witness to some sort of traffic incident and was not allowed to make a deposition. Joan Futtner became seriously ill in near by Durango, which caused the Futtners to initially cancel their attendance. Joan did achieve a partial recovery and they were able to attend the banquet. Finally, Ken Boden had to withdraw mid way through the reunion because of altitude sickness. The issue was further exacerbated by the fact that the high Rocky Mountains stood between Ken and his home in Eastern Washington.

All parts of the reunion were a success. We were able to pay all of our bills and pay back the seed money to NWSA. It should be noted that the local NWSA chapters bought ads for the booklet and were a major monetary contributor. The Scholarship fund was the beneficiary of several reunion activities and will receive a lump sum when every single cost item has been carefully accounted for and a certain anticipation of the cost of shipping NWSA reunion items to Las Vegas. The success of this reunion was of course attributable to all the members, their spouses, and guests who attended. Thanks to all who did their part to make this reunion a memorable event.

The 40th NWSA reunion will be held in Pensacola, Florida. The Pensacola Chapter will host the reunion led by Pat and Libby O'Brien.

A motion to change the Constitution, changing the elected officers to a two-year term was approved, having the President and Secretary offices elected in alternate years for continuity. It takes two years for a change to be made to the constitution. If the change is passed, it would take effect in 2014. The Secretary/Treasurer elected in 2014 would hold office until 2016. The President Elect for 2014 would serve a one year term.

The two year term for the President would take place in 2015. Thereby these two offices would be elected in alternating years.

...(motion and constitution follows)...ed.

A new editor is needed for the NWSA Aerograph. Charlie Jordan has held the position for 6 years. The bulk mail center he uses is closing and the closest one to him would be a 3 hour drive. Besides he feels after 6 years, it is time for him to step down. Several members offered to split the position but since this is an appointed position by the President, it was decided to let the new president; Bill Bowers take it for action.

Mike Gilroy, the Scholarship Chairman, stated the transition of funds to the AMS has worked smoothly and the scholarship applications are being reviewed for this year's selection. Libby reported that she had sent AMS the first installment of scholarship funds in the amount of $38,427.00.

It was noted that all NWSA Chapters were represented at this reunion.

FRENCHY RECEIVES AN UNUSUAL AWARD

The little blurb appended below was published Thursday, 31 May, in the Brillion Optimists Club newsletter. I touched on this same subject in this week's edition of "Glimpses of Brillion", and I have been told that there will be a little story in "The Brillion News" that will be published Thursday the 7th. Until last Wednesday night, I had never heard of a Quilt of Valor and only since have I come to appreciate the significance of the honor bestowed on me. I must say, I am not only grateful, but truly humbled by this expression of gratitude by the Brillion Woman's Club. The quilt is a lap size, extraordinarily beautiful, and after spending two nights keeping me warm, now graces the back of my recliner. It is definitely too pretty to tuck away in some safe place.

"CONGRATULATIONS TO FRENCHY CORBEILLE

Wednesday evening this week the Brillion Woman's Club honored him by presenting him with a "Quilt of Valor". A Quilt of Valor" is a tangible way to say "Thank You" for your sacrifice and valor for our country and community. A Quilt of Valor is a beautifully made, pieced and quilted wartime quilt. In short a Quilt of Valor is a wartime quilt made by wartime quilters. Our Optimist Club joins with the Brillion Woman's Club in thanking you for your service to your country and community. The quilt donated to Frenchy was made by a talented local quilter – Peggy Buffington."

P.S. Peggy Buffington is a Navy wife - married to a 20-year retired stew burner who runs Brillion's only bakery

YOU CAN LEAVE THE MILITARY -- BUT IT NEVER REALLY LEAVES YOU.

By Ken Burger, The Charleston Post and Courier: :
Thursday, March 4, 2010

Occasionally, I venture back to NSA, Meridian, where I'm greeted by an imposing security guard who looks carefully at my identification card, hands it back and says, "Have a good day, Chief".

Every time I go back to any Navy Base it feels good to be called by my previous rank, but odd to be in civilian clothes, walking among the servicemen and servicewomen going about their duties as I once did, many years ago.

The military is a comfort zone for anyone who has ever worn the uniform. It's a place where you know the rules and know they are enforced -- a place where everybody is busy, but not too busy to take care of business.

Because there exists behind the gates of every military facility an institutional understanding of respect, order, uniformity, accountability and dedication that becomes part of your marrow and never, ever leaves you.

Personally, I miss the fact that you always knew where you stood in the military, and who you were dealing with. That's because you could read somebody's uniform from 20 feet away and know the score.

Service personnel wear their careers on their sleeves, so to speak. When you approach each other, you can read their name tag, examine their rank and, if they are in dress uniform, read their ribbons and know where they've served.

I miss all those little things you take for granted when you're in the ranks, like breaking starch on a set of fatigues fresh from the laundry and standing in a perfectly straight line military formation that looks like a mirror as it stretches to the endless horizon.

I miss the sight of troops marching in the early morning mist, the sound of boot heels thumping in unison on the tarmac, the bark of drill instructors and the sing-song answers from the squads as they pass by in review

To romanticize military service is to be far removed from its reality, because it's very serious business -- especially in times of war.

But I miss the salutes I'd throw at officers and the crisp returns as we criss-crossed with a "by your leave sir"

I miss the smell of jet fuel hanging heavily on the night air and the sound of engines roaring down runways and disappearing into the clouds. The same while on carrier duty.

I even miss the hurry-up-and-wait mentality that enlisted men gripe about constantly, a masterful invention that bonded people more than they'll ever know or admit.

I miss people taking off their hats when they enter a building, speaking directly and clearly to others and never showing disrespect for rank, race, religion or gender.

Mostly, I miss being a small cog in a machine so complex it constantly circumnavigates the Earth and so simple it feeds everyone on time, three times a day, on the ground, in the air or at sea.

Mostly, I don't know anyone who has served who regrets it, and doesn't feel a sense of pride when they pass through those gates and re-enter the world they left behind with their youth.

I wish I could express my thoughts as well about something I loved -- and hated sometimes.

Face it guys and gals - we all miss it.....Whether you had one tour or a career, it shaped your life.

ZEMO TARNOWSKI AWARDED THE NAVY CROSS

Born: 10 May 1918 - Died: 1 Feb 1998

Zemo Tarnowski enlisted in the United States Navy on 29 Dec 1937 and had advanced to the rate of first class petty officer when Pearl Harbor took place. This is a brief story of the only Aerographer's Mate to be awarded the Navy Cross for his remarkable actions during World War II. The account is based directly upon the book LAUGHTER IN HELL by Stephen Marek.

Captured by the Japanese Army on the Bataan Peninsula in 1942, he survived the Death March and was sent to prison in Osaka, Japan. These men worked as stevedores in the railroad yards and underwent the same severe conditions that became a hallmark of the treatment accorded prisoners by the prison guards (that we all have read and heard about).

A peculiarity of the mind set of the Japanese guards was in their attitude toward the commissioned-officer prisoners. The Geneva POW Accords provide that officers could not be forced to perform manual labor. Therefore, the guards simply would not pay attention to the POW Commanding Officer because they did not work and therefore "earn their way." Nothing could be accomplished in adjudicating day-to-day conditions.

In response the entire group of prisoners – in conference – decided to elect an enlisted man to act as the POW Commandant; a leader who did perform labor and was acceptable (in their eyes) to deal with.

When this elective approach was determined, it was unanimously decided that AG1 Tarnowski, USN, would be the POW leader for the remainder of the interment. It followed that he was quite effective in communicating with the guards, but each time that he approached them, they administered a (physical) beating before talking could and would proceed.

The prisoners developed a way of life seldom, if ever, witnessed that resulted in their becoming strong, healthy men who had developed a unique relationship with the local populace. This is explained in detail in LAUGHTER IN HELL.

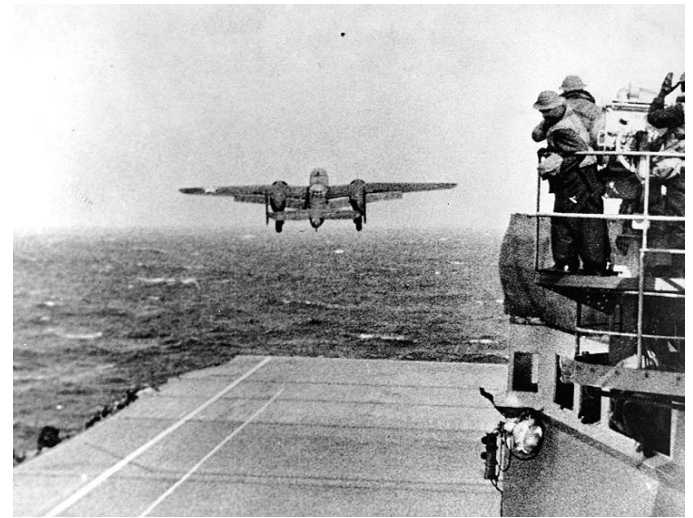

When the war was over, the command reverted to the POW officers. They, in turn, wrote a recommendation to the Navy Department and requested that AG1 Tarnowski be awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor in recognition of his actions in Osaka. This was denied because "he was not wounded in action." The award was downgraded to the Navy Cross (the nation's second highest individual award).

In my opinion, Commander Zemo Tarnowski, USN, was the most efficient and capable weather forecaster ever to serve in our field of endeavor.

DOOLITTLE'S RAIDERS RECALL DARING MISSION

May 06, 2012 Associated Press by Sudhin Thanawala

ALAMEDA, Calif. - Three of Doolittle's Raiders who helped boost American morale during the early days of World War II recalled the dangers of their bold bombing attack on Japan mainland.

Airman Edward Saylor didn't expect to come back alive when his B-25 set off on the 1942 mission. "Some of the group thought they'd make it," Saylor said Saturday. "But the odds were so bad."

Saylor and the other 79 Doolittle's Raiders were forced to take off in rainy, windy conditions significantly further from Japan than planned, straining their fuel capacity. None of the 16 planes' pilots had ever taken off from an aircraft carrier before.

Saylor and two other raiders, Maj. Thomas Griffin and Staff Sgt. David Thatcher - all in their 90s now - recalled their daring mission and its leader, Lt. Col. Jimmy Doolittle, at a commemoration Saturday aboard the USS Hornet in Alameda, across the bay from San Francisco.

Their mission has been credited with boosting American spirits at a critical time, less than five months after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor and with Japan sweeping through the Pacific. The bombing inflicted only scattered damage, but lifted spirits at home while shaking Japan's confidence.

But it did not come without a price. Three raiders were killed while trying to land in China. Eight were captured by the Japanese, of which three were executed and a fourth died of disease in prison. The Japanese also killed Chinese villagers suspected of helping many of the airmen escape.

Griffin recalled ditching his plane when it ran out of fuel after the raid and parachuting to the ground in darkness. "I got out of my airplane by jumping real fast," he said. "It was a long, strange journey to the land down below."

Griffin landed in a tree and clung to it until daybreak. Saturday's event was held in conjunction with the 70th anniversary of the raiders' April 18, 1942 mission. It also included: Doolittle's granddaughter, Jonna Doolittle Hoppes; two seamen aboard the carrier the raiders left from, the USS Hornet CV-8, Lt. Cmdr. Richard Nowatzki and Lt. j.g. Oral Moore; and a Chinese official who as a teenager helped rescue the raiders, Lt. Col. Chu Chen. The American airmen remembered Doolittle as a great planner who knew his aircraft and fought alongside them.

Hoppes said her grandfather, who was born in Alameda and died in 1993, was very proud of the men on the mission. "I grew up with 79 uncles in addition to the ones I really had," she said. "He was just very proud of how they turned out."

DEATH OF FIRST AFRICAN AMERICAN ANNAPOLIS GRADUATE

ANNAPOLIS, Md. - Retired Lt. Cmdr. Wesley Brown, the first African-American to graduate from the U.S. Naval Academy, has died, the Academy said. He was 85.

The Capital of Annapolis reported that Brown died Tuesday. An Academy spokesman did not know where Brown died and a cause of death was not immediately known Wednesday.

Brown, a 1949 graduate, was appointed to the Academy in 1945. He was the sixth black admitted but the first to earn a degree.

Brown "embodied the highest ideals of the Academy's mission and dedicated himself to decades of selfless and distinguished service to our nation," Vice Admiral Michael H. Miller, the Naval Academy's superintendent, said in a statement.

At the Naval Academy, Brown ran varsity track and cross country, and was a cross-country teammate of former President Jimmy Carter. A 1995 interview on Brown by The Baltimore Sun noted a framed 1989 letter from his fellow track team member, who would stop by to talk to him and encouraged him to "hang in there."

"I ran with you (you were better). Jimmy Carter," the letter read.

Brown spent his four years at the academy without a roommate by choice, he recalled in a 2005 interview with

The Capital. He said he didn't want to feel responsible for unwilling or friendly white midshipmen.

He was featured in the book, "Breaking the Color Barrier: The U.S. Naval Academy's First Black Midshipmen and the Struggle for Racial Equality" by Navy historian Robert J. Schneller Jr. The author said in a 2005 interview that upperclassmen would give Brown excessive demerits for allegedly not maintaining his uniform properly and some classmates would not sit next to him in the cafeteria.

He told The Baltimore Sun in a 2005 interview that he learned to not be frustrated when faced with a situation that couldn't be changed.

"When I came to the academy, I learned that there were all kinds of prejudices - against Jews, Catholics, even the Irish - and I looked around and thought that these prejudices were instilled in them by their families and they could not be blamed for feeling the way they did," he said.

Brown, a veteran of World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War, had a 20-year career with the Navy. He helped build houses in Hawaii, roads in Liberia, waterfront facilities in the Philippines, and a seawater conversion plant in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

He retired from civilian employment at Howard University in 1988.

In 2008, the Naval Academy constructed the Wesley Brown Field House to accommodate physical education classes as well as the academy's athletic programs.

SUPREME COURT RULING: NO IMPACT ON TRICARE

The June Supreme Court decision upholding the constitutionality of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) has no impact on TRICARE health benefits for service members, military retirees and their families. TRICARE's commitment to providing the best possible health care to its more than 9.7 million beneficiaries remains unchanged. TRICARE is authorized by independent statutes, and remains under sole authority of the Defense Department and the Secretary of Defense.

TRICARE benefits meet or exceed the minimum requirements provided in the ACA for creditable coverage, including coverage for pre-existing conditions and serious illnesses, preventive care services with no cost shares, reasonable out-of-pocket costs with no or low deductibles and copayments, and no annual or lifetime caps on coverage. For more information about TRICARE's covered clinical preventive services, go to www.tricare.mil/preventivecare.

Further, Congress also passed the TRICARE Affirmation Act, signed into law in April 2010. This law explicitly states that Department of Defense health coverage, including TRICARE, qualifies as "minimum essential coverage" under the ACA.

Finally, TRICARE Young Adult (TYA) extends TRICARE coverage to the children of beneficiaries up to age 26. Congress authorized this program in the 2011 National Defense Authorization Act, which became law in January 2011. TYA, implemented in April 2011, gives eligible uniformed services dependents under 26 who are unmarried and not eligible for employer-sponsored health care coverage the option to purchase TRICARE coverage. As of May 31, 2012, more than 17,000 beneficiaries are enrolled in TYA. For more information about TYA and how to purchase it, go to www.tricare.mil/tya.

RADM TITLEY'S NEW JOB

June 1, 2012

It gives me great pleasure to announce Rear Admiral David Titley as the next Deputy Under Secretary for Operations (DUS/O) at NOAA. As NOAA's Chief Operating Officer, Dr. Titley will be responsible for managing operations across NOAA's entire portfolio and will serve as one of my key advisors on NOAA program and policy issues.

Dr. Titley brings to this position a wealth of knowledge and experience in leading large, complex organizations and directing major operations around the world. A naval officer since 1980, Rear Admiral Titley's distinguished career has included seven deployments to the Mediterranean Sea, Indian Ocean, and Western Pacific region and multiple commands (Fleet Numerical Meteorological and Oceanographic Center, Naval Oceanography Operations Command, and Naval Meteorology and Oceanography Command). Shore tours include serving on the staff of the U.S. Commission on Ocean Policy and as the senior military assistant to the director of Net Assessment in the Office of the Secretary of Defense

In 2009, he assumed the duties of the oceanographer and navigator of the Navy, and in 2012, he became acting assistant deputy chief of Naval Operations for Information Dominance. Dr. Titley's education includes a Bachelor of Science in meteorology from the Pennsylvania State University, a Master of Science in meteorology and physical oceanography, and a Ph.D. in meteorology, both from the Naval Postgraduate School. His dissertation focused on better understanding tropical cyclone intensification. He was elected a Fellow of the American Meteorological Society in 2009.

I couldn't be more pleased that Dr. Titley will be joining our senior leadership team, and I hope you'll all join me in welcoming him to our NOAA family when he arrives in July.

Sincerely,

Dr. Jane Lubchenco,

DAV Supports Review of Radiation Exposure in Antarctic Veterans

New Zealand Antarctic Society, Ice Files, April 2011 — The Disabled American Veterans (DAV) is supporting a request from Senator Sherrod Brown (Democrat-Ohio) that the Departments of Defense and Veterans Affairs evaluate the probability of radiation exposure from a leaking nuclear reactor at McMurdo Station may have caused cancer in veterans serving there from 1964 to 1973. A Final Operating Report for PM-3A Nuclear Power Plant, McMurdo Station, was prepared by the U.S. Naval Nuclear Power Unit, Fort Belvoir, Virginia, which cites numerous malfunctions and a problem with chloride stress corrosion, with an ultimate decision to dismantle the plant and remove it from Antarctica.
